Alice joined Peters & Peters in May 2020 as an Associate in the Commercial Litigation, Civil Fraud and Asset Tracing department.

Alice acts for individual and corporate clients in a range of complex commercial disputes, often with an international focus. She works on a wide range of matters involving fraud, breach of contract, insolvency and negligence. Alice works on cases from a pre-action stage to trial or appeal and is often instructed in connection with interim proceedings and applications including freezing orders and third-party disclosure orders.

Prior to joining the firm, Alice worked at a boutique law firm specialising in commercial litigation and insolvency litigation. She has also previously practised as a self-employed barrister.

Alice read Law at Durham University and holds a Masters in Jurisprudence from Durham University. She was called to the Bar of England and Wales and completed pupillage in-house at a litigation boutique specialising in high value and complex commercial litigation, tax litigation and international arbitration.
